

Malaysia

UNESCO – INTERNATIONAL HYDROLOGICAL PROGRAMME (IHP) MALAYSIA

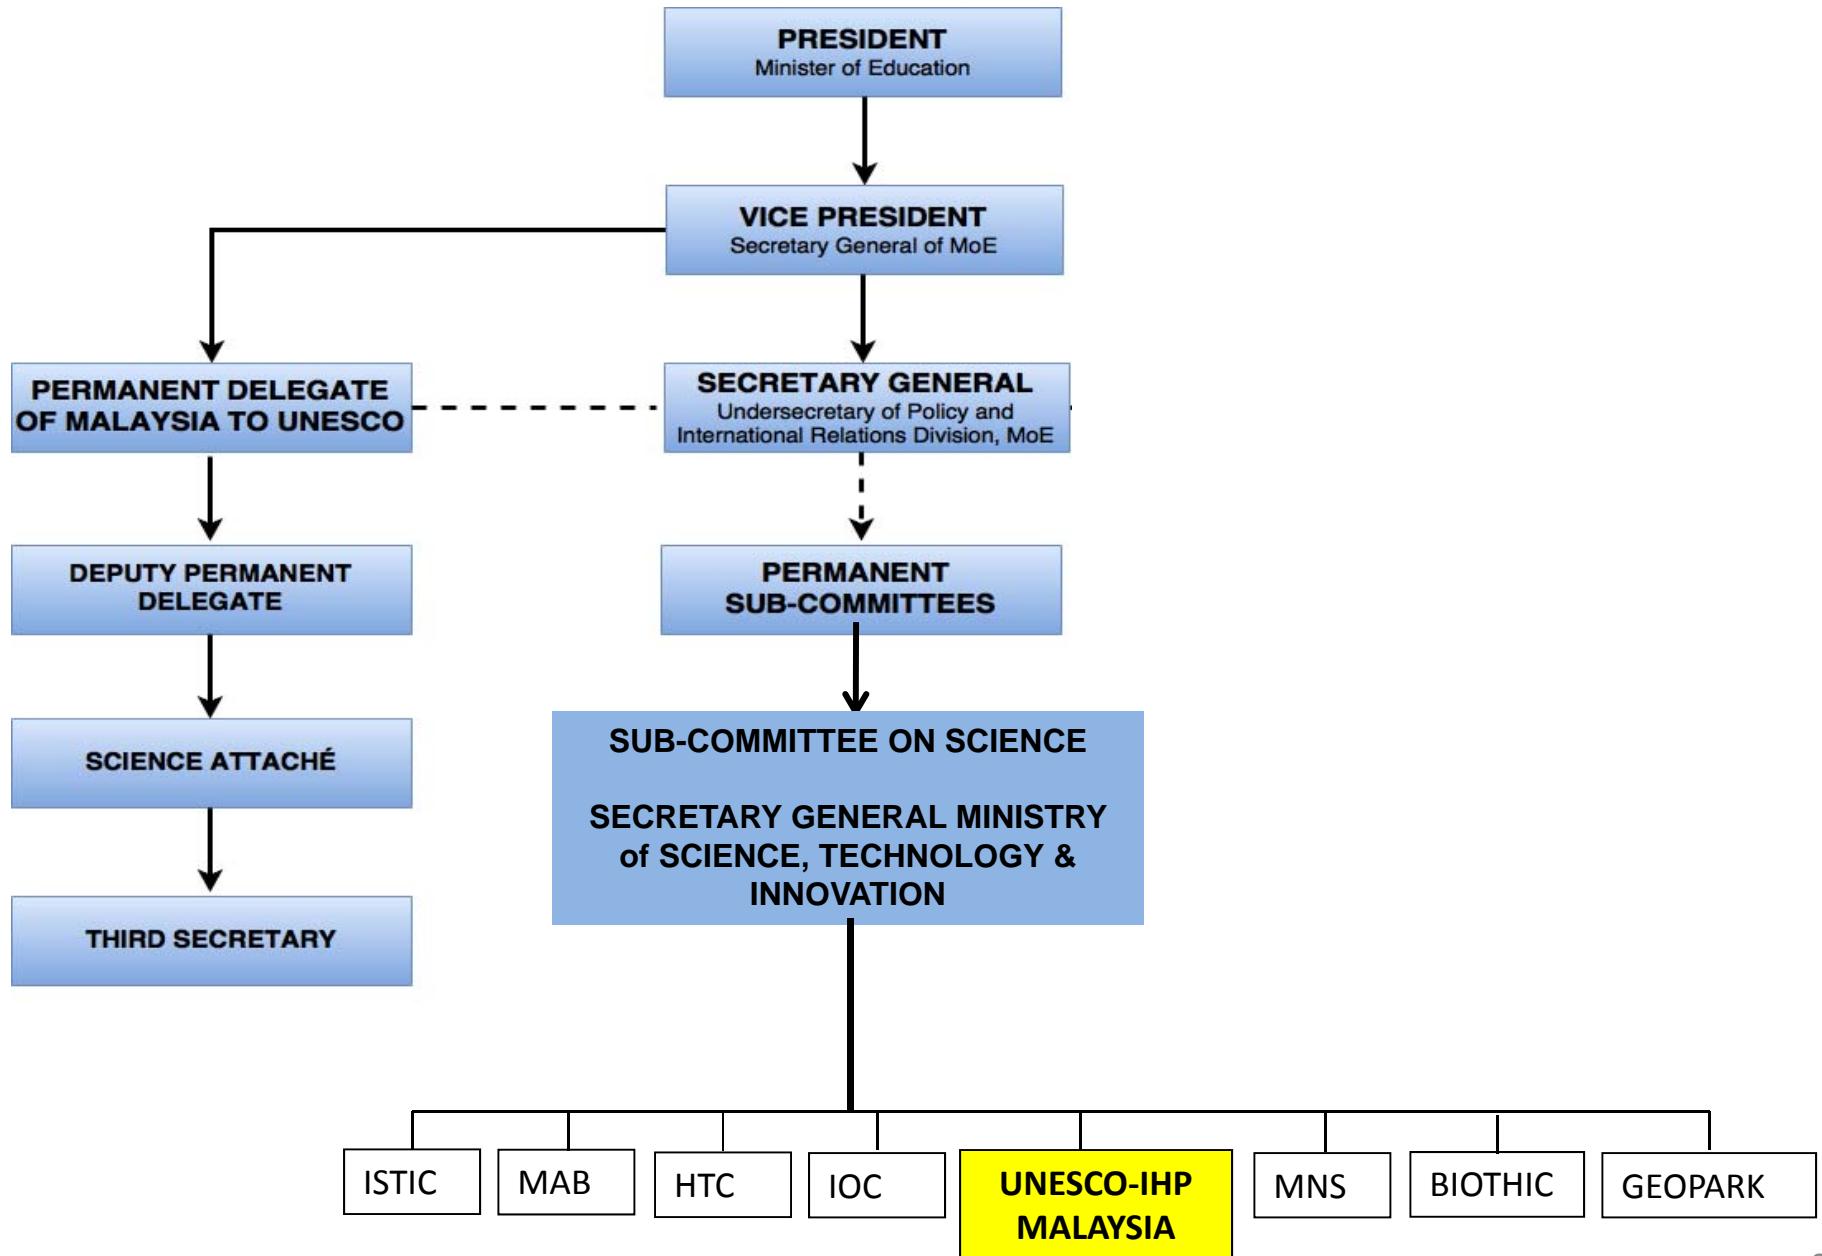

MIHP ACTIVITIES DELIVERY OF SDGs WATER RELATED GOALS

By

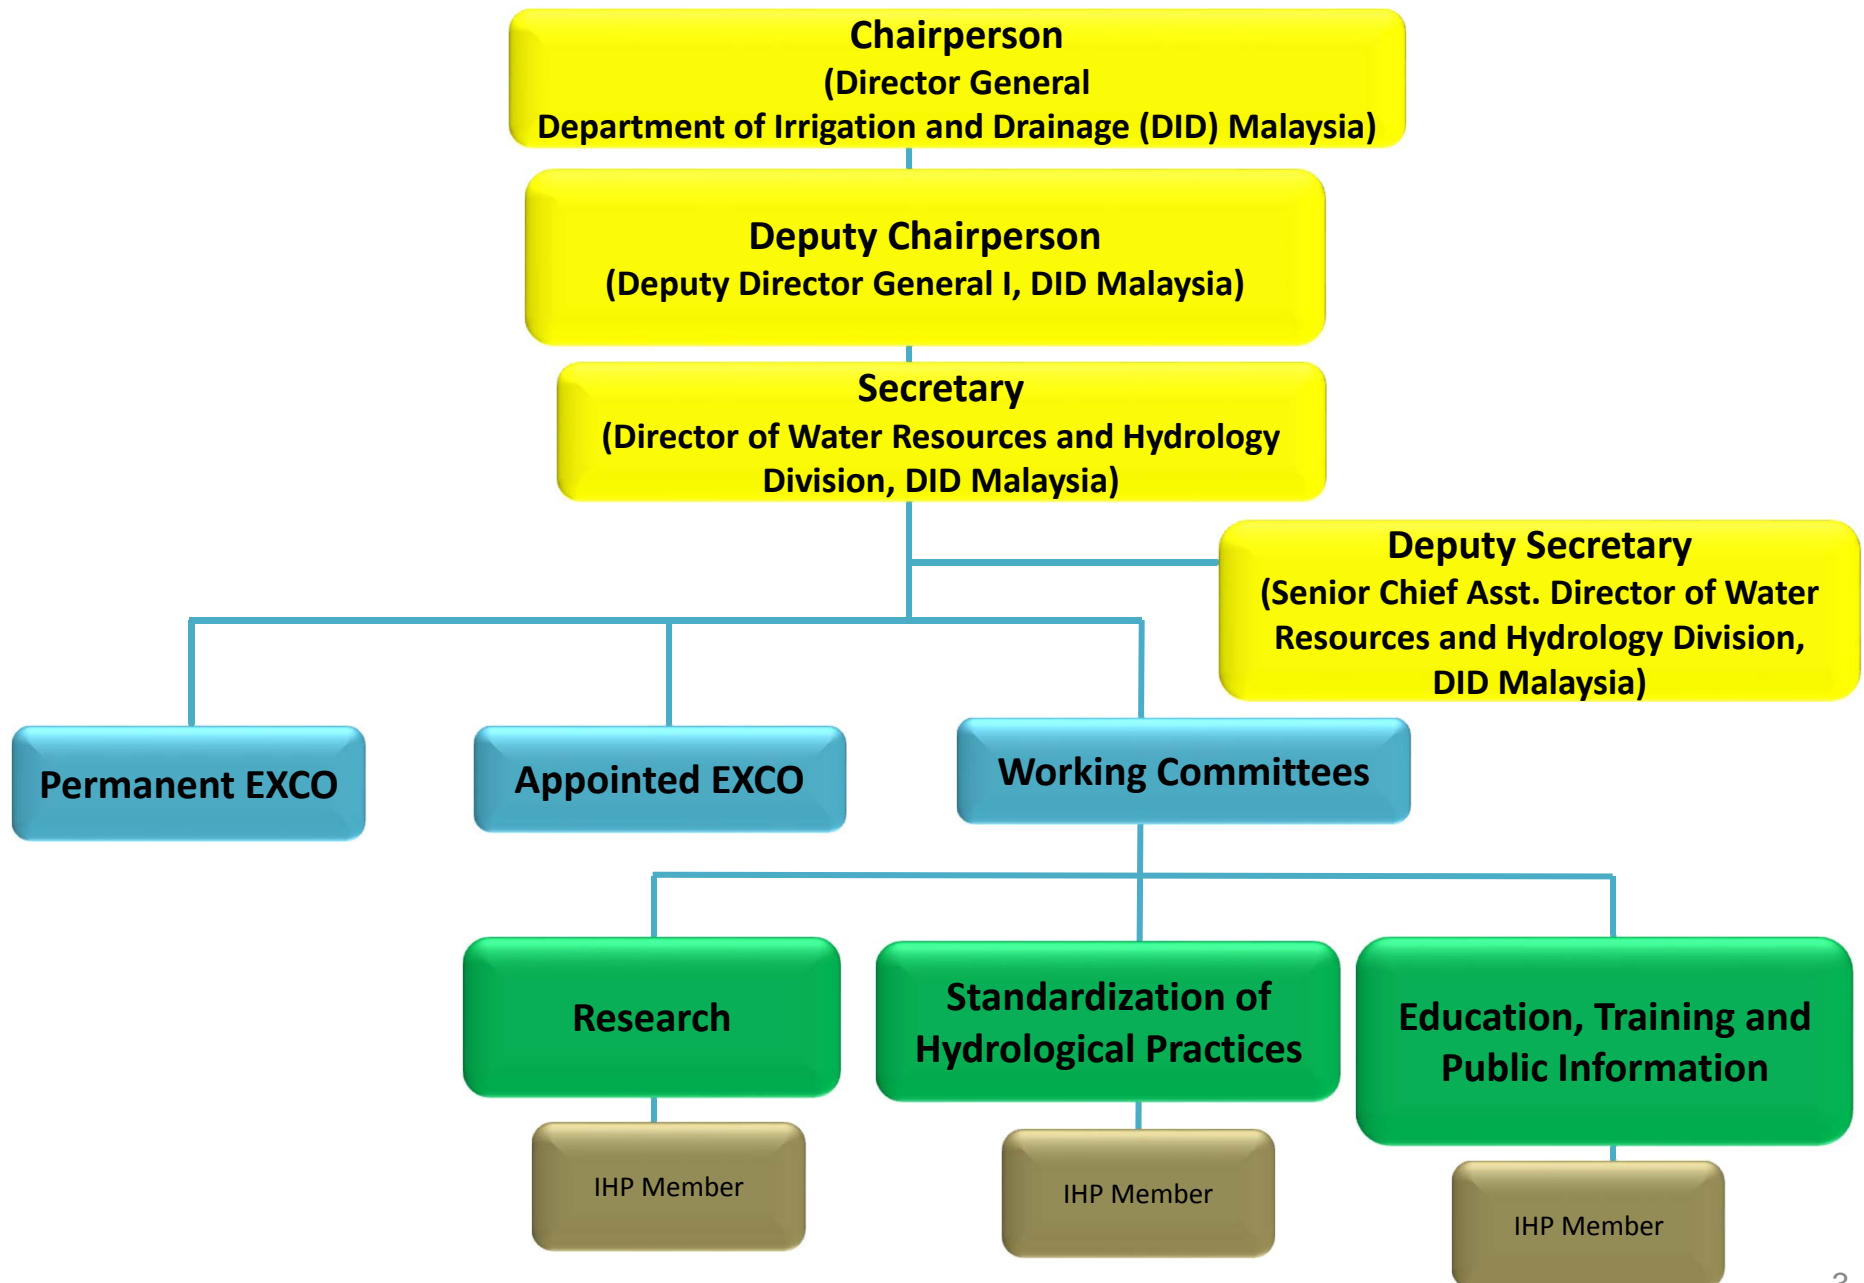

Dato' Ir. Hj. Mohd Abdul Nassir bin Bidin

22 July 2016 at Bali, Indonesia

MALAYSIAN NATIONAL COMMISSION FOR UNESCO (NATCOM)

EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE (EXCO) OF UNESCO-IHP MALAYSIA

Sustainable Development Goals

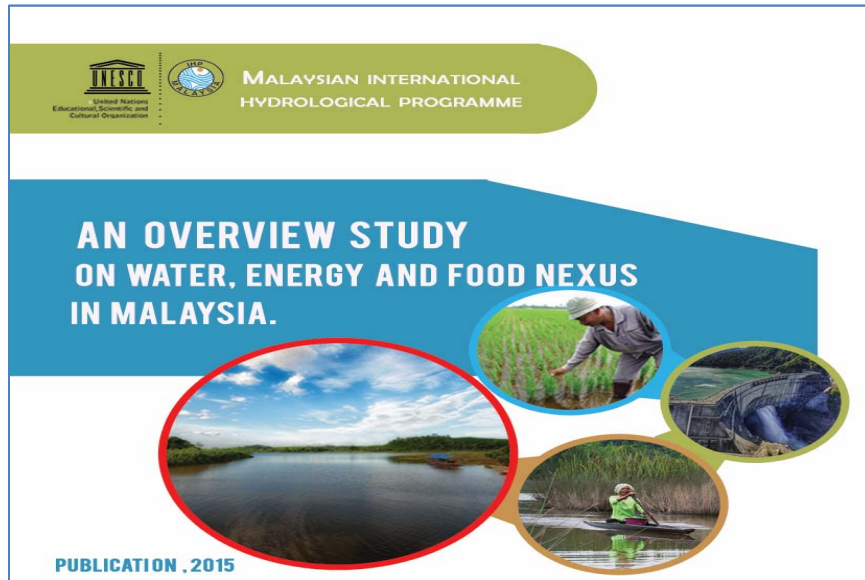

- 2030 Agenda for Sustainable Development → outlined 17 Goals (SDGs) and 169 Targets

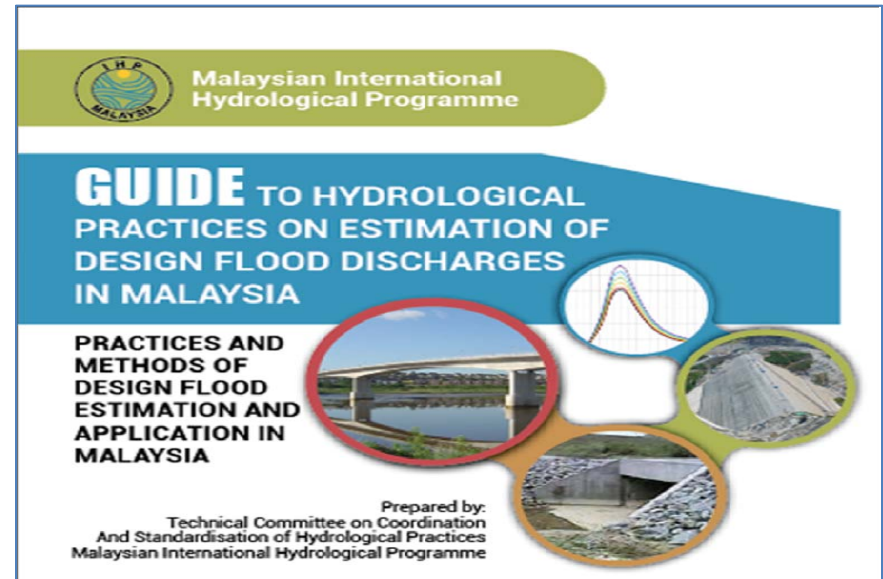

Ref : ESCAP Expert Consultation Sept 2015

MIHP ACTIVITIES DELIVERY OF SDGs
WATER RELATED GOALS
OCTOBER 2014 – JUN 2016

1.0 RESEARCH

2.0 STANDARDIZATION OF HYDROLOGICAL PRACTICES

3.0 EDUCATION, TRAINING AND PUBLIC INFORMATION

Water Watch Programme For Young Leader
UNESCO-IHP Malaysia

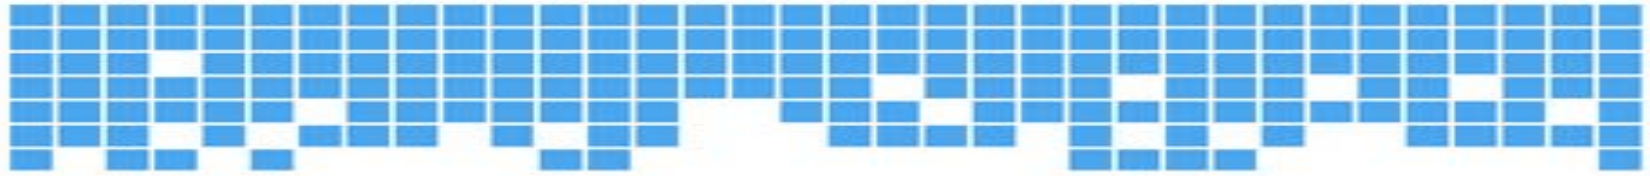

Malaysia Minister of Education accompanying Prof. Dr. Shahbaz Khan, Director and Representative of UNESCO Jakarta during UNESCO Malaysia Day 2016

MIHP VISIONS FOR THE FUTURE

- ❑ To raise awareness and capacity building on environmental sustainability through effective Water Resources Management towards Sustainable Development Goals Agenda.
- ❑ To publish a Hydrological Procedure Guidelines or Standards every three years.
- ❑ To implementation of the National Water Resources Policy ensuring water sustainability and security for Malaysia
- ❑ To reach about 20% of the student population on an annual basis have been gone through awareness program activities.

PROPOSED PROJECT PLANNING RELATED TO SDGs
(2017-2018) FUNDED BY UNESCO

No.	PROPOSED PROJECT	ESTIMATED COST (USD)
1.0	Workshop on Water Resources Security In The Context of Sustainable Development Goals	30,000.00
2.0	Hydrological Procedure Guidelines or Standards	30,000.00
3.0	The National Water Programme for Young Leaders for Students	30,000.00
TOTAL		90,000.00

THANK YOU

United Nations
Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organization

